
Women Open Exhibition Friday

I doubt many will goto the game. I'm not even sure it's gonna be on KNTU since it's an exhibition, but if it is I'll be listening online.

I really wouldn't mind making it to this. I probably won't make this one, nor the mens exhibition on Tuesday. I am hoping we see something promising from both teams though.

It's usually hard to guage the team on these exhibition games. Everyone plays these non-existant semi-pro squads or something like that.

But the women's team is very young this season, so we really DON'T have an idea what we have. That's why I hope it's broadcast online.
