Thanks for the writeup. Wasn't able to listen to the game, so it helped. :)

Didn't get to see the Tulsa game, but I imagine if Sturns didn't jack up as many 3s he would have a much higher shooting percentage. I guess I don't mind as much when Watson shoots a lot of 3s, although I wish he would drive more, but Sturns' best offensive ability is taking defenders off the dribble and making things happen in the lane.
