RETARDS on the other board

I've long stopped giving opinions on the Dipshit Board. There are too many morons there, and it would piss me off, with some of their idiotic replies. So, I then tried to just start making informational posts...letting others know about things. Even with that...it's a lost cause. Look at the responses on this thread....where I tried to let the Dumb F**ks know about a Jamario mention, in an article by well respected NFL writer Rick "Goose" Gosselin:

It's a shame how downhill that board has gone.

:lol: Many a thread has faced a similar fate, no doubt about it.

How do you feel about Quoner chief? He's one of the few comedians who is consistently amusing - and the "Free Quoner" bit has been more funny than I would've thought.
