
Chat today?

We haven't really tried one this season. Last year we experimented with it a couple of times, but given the low membership here - the participation was lacking. :lol: The chatroom is pretty nifty tho - better than the one on GMG.com IMHO. I don't know, just a thought.

I'm up for it though.

Mean Green play at 7, and Knox plays at 7, so we should have stuff to talk about.

Okay, so a few minutes before tipoff then? Hopefully we won't be too lagged to each other on KNTU. That's sometimes a problem.

Ugh, well I won't be there after all. I am told tonight is date night - so husbandly duties for me tonight.

Better than the husbandly doodie I did this morning.

I can't log in to the chat. We are supposed to use our user name and password from this site, correct?
