Man, I listened to the end on the radio and I was going crazy there at the end. What a finish.

If we defeat ASU on Wednesday it'll be a 2nd 20 win season in a row. Considering we hadn't had one in like 30 years before that - that's a pretty significant deal for the guys.

Yeah, it is quite a feat. Last year I think many felt it was a bit watered down due to many sub D1 teams. 2 seasons in a row will be pretty impressive.
