
NCAA Bracket Contest

Posted by Aaron - 2008/03/03 09:33

I created a group for the loyal members of this website to compete in the Yahoo Bracket Contest.

It is private group # 18514
the password is iheartmcfall

Put your user name as your bracket title if you can.

The winner will have bragging rights to superior college basketball knowledge for one year.

I did mine yesterday. Not as confident as I sometimes am. Then again, I rarely do as good as I figure so maybe hesitancy is good.

Hopefully it keeps up. My picks have sucked over the last 3 years after having 3 really good years. Maybe it's cyclical and this year is the turnaround.

Well, I'm about to lose one of my Final Four. I usually pick one "sleeper" - and felt Michigan State was a good pick given Coach Izzo's tournament history.

Whoops.

Apparently I'm tied for 8th in Yahoo rankings right now, which has over 2 million people. Even if it doesn't keep up, I'm pretty pleased with that.
