The loss to them still stings.

Not as bad a loss as it was last year. They went in the tank then. On the other hand if they should win - they might have a leg up on recruiting. They'll be top dog in the metroplex for at least a year.

I'm happy for them. I don't get these fans of ours, who hate other schools so much. UTA, isn't in our league. They play in a horrible facility. And yet, they've whupped us two years in a row.

So, more power to them.

Even if they win (they won't against Memphis)...we still should NEVER lose a recruit to them. Not while they play on The Stage...

Go Movin' Mavs!

Kinda ironic we both drew Memphis.
