
If You'd like to relive last season's run

And don't wanna read all my synopsis...here's the DMN's page of stuff. I'm not sure how long they'll archive it, but I figured I'd post the link in anyone wanted to watch any of the diaries, or look thru the pictures again.

I really wish there had been some sort of commemorative DVD made.

I would have bought a DVD for sure.

Also, selection Sunday wasn't quite as fun this year was it?

Not near as fun. I am still disappointed they didn't show us last year celebrating at the AC on TV.
