
Quick shoutout to the Cougars

Houston has advanced to the semifinals of the CBI. I saw Penders interviewed after their 1st win last week, and it was almost amusing how he hard was trying to sell the new tourney. :)

Still though...I hope it does succeed and grows. With 113 schools playing postseason ball - there's quite a few who are deserving. It's a shame the CBI felt compelled to invite the Bearcats - I think the tournament lost a bit of the credibility it was trying to achieve.
