
National Championship

What a game, but especially what a finish. I thought that FTs would keep Memphis from making it this far, but it finally came back to haunt them. That comeback and 3 pointer though. Amazing.

One of the best championship games I've ever seen. Especially the last 6 minutes or so of regulation.

They could have missed the FT's and been OK, but throw in that silly turnover after the first three on the inbounds pass, and they left the door open for that to happen.
