
Family Reunion

Posted by CMJ - 2008/04/11 00:10

I will likely be going to a major family reunion in September. It's several branches of the family tree, from Rhode Island all the way to California.

ANYWAYS - I'm not sure of the dates yet, but there's a good shot I'll be in town around the time of the football opener against Tulsa. If so, I'll look for all of you. :D

On a down note, this likely means I won't make a basketball game next season. I'm still toying with the idea of Hot Springs though(especially if we have a really good year).

I figure I'll post this on GMG in a few months, but just giving yall a heads up.
