She wasn't most of our 1st choice, but it's time to circle the wagons now. She's our coach and I for one am behind her completely.

I agree. It's not her fault that she was hired. And who knows maybe she'll be great. I hope so.

Welcome Aboard Coach Stephens and Family.

p.s. If it's a public event, I may try to make the press conference tomorrow. Wonder if KNTU might carry that...for you out of towners?

Well Women's basketball is the most high profile female sport....but it's still 3rd(at best) on the charts at NT. I'd doubt KNTU carries it.

I am certainly not thrilled and am concerned she is female Vic Trilli. That being said, I support her fully and wish her the best. There is no reason we can't be a power in the Belt.
