GrandGreen posted a honest review of our performance on Tuesday. SUMG, what did you feel?

Anyone else who went feel free to chime in as well.

After the way we played against Valpo....I've decided to edit my previous comments. We showed great improvement in that game (mainly in the second half)....so I think our gals are getting some good coaching.

Thanks for the candor SUMG. I'm hoping the girls are still just getting used to the new style, but the massive turnovers in practically every game so far are very troubling to me as well.

This is her first Head Coaching job, so I'm gonna cut her alot of slack this year.
