Apparently a miraculous win. I don't have much to add because i wasn't able to listen.

Courtland... It was an amazing finish. Agony for 36 minutes and then non stop ass kicking by our guys.

Of all the years to win that Oscar lottery and miss the tournament... This one was probably the worst. Just wall to wall fantastic basketball, sometimes two games at a time.

Tremendous. And the city has really taken things to a new level... Banners and flyers and merchants going out of their way to welcome everyone wearing team apparel... I'd love to see a new neutral site, just for variety, after next year... But if it stays here forever, I'd never complain.

I did have a good time, and I should have some amazing pictures, but it does sadden me how good the tourney seems to be this year. Maybe I can go to the NCAA's if we win the Final tho
