I think it sets up pretty well. Even with Panhandle State - which are sure to draw jeers.

We're going to lose to Kansas. Barring a tragic injury or two... That's really the only team on the schedule that has us outmanned.

Optimistic realist: Lose to Kansas, split with LSU and Tech, drop one or two conference games. 25-4 final record going into the SBC tournament.

Realistic realist: Lose to Kansas, lose two OOC games, go 13-3 in conference games. 23-6 final record going into the tournament.

Semi-pessimistic realist: Lose to the BCS schools, drop another OOC game, go 12-4 in conference. 21-8 final record going into the tournament.

I had us at 12-6 in league play last year, so I suppose I'm a pessimistic realist. A 12-4 SunBelt mark would be about what I'd go with.
