
RV's big MISS

Seeing now that the UTA women's coach has quit, to become a women's AD in the Mesquite school district.....there is no doubt that we could have had her (Donna Capps) as our coach next season. Probably for less even than what we're paying Tina.

And btw.....don't assume that Tina is gone after next year. If she packs her OOC schedule with lightweights....18-20 wins is not out of the question (she won 19 last year, folks).

So you think then RV fires her (or doesn't renew) after an 18+ win season? Guess again.

You don't think she might've just been tired of coaching period?

Not from what I've read. She seemed tired of the situation at UTA (they made her get rid of a coach---a 62 year old mentor of hers; plus, her pay wasn't that good).

No, I think she still likes coaching....just not at Movin' Mav Land.

Well, if Slinker doesn't perform next year hopefully she's on the list".
