
Mean Green Season Recap Part THREE

Posted by Scrappy - 2007/04/21 11:50

Back to Front PageWe started the second half of our conference slate with a trip to South Alabama. USA was leading the Eastern division of the Belt, so this figured to be a good measuring stick to where we stood. Another battle commenced as the Mean Green and Jaguars slugged it out. The first half was end to end play as we scored 49, and the Jags put up 45 of their own. In the second stanza play slowed just a touch and was tied with a minute in regulation. Ben Bell stroked a 3 pointer with 55 seconds remaining, but Demetric Bennett answered with one of his own. USA then had a chance to win in regulation, but Harold Stewart came up with a blocked shot as time expired. Another overtime game was upon us. The OT

Re: Mean Green Season Recap Part THREE

Posted by CMJ - 2007/04/21 12:23

I think this was my best one so far. Just warming up for the tourney run. ;D

Re: Mean Green Season Recap Part THREE

Posted by Scrappy - 2007/04/21 16:00

I really like how these have come every so often. It is a slow time right now (shouldn't be - we should be talking about our latest signees), so these come at a good time
